

Liberty Memorial, Kansas City, Mo.

[page 1]

24 Liberty Memorial, Kansas City, Mo.

[page 2]

[caption]

Overlooking the Union Station from a commanding site on Memorial Hill stands Kansas City's war memorial built by popular subscription at a cost of approximately two and one-half million dollars. The corner stone was laid in 1921 in the presence of General Pershing and the military leaders of the various Allied nations. In 1926 the completed structure was dedicated by President Coolidge. It was designed by Harold Van Buren Magonigle.

[end caption]

Hello:

Will try to make up last of week. I am needing eggs so save me all you get. Harold has cold, but rest is OK. Glad Mary was is doing fine. He had nice service Sunday 50 voice teen-age choir had the morning service. Harold, was in it. We are having bible study course now in prayer meeting. I am taking it. I am trying to get back on the job again with my cradle roll. My gal is up so have to get busy. We are drinking our tea, try it. Write Irene

Mrs Louis L. Stephens

Dearborn, Mo.

R.R.2.