

New Union Station from Main St. Viaduct, Kansas City, Mo.

[page 1]

New Union Station from Main St. Viaduct, Kansas City, Mo.

[page 2]

[caption]

The steel train sheds at the New Union Station, Kansas City, are 1,400 feet long and cover an area of 430,000 square feet. They afford space for thirty-two trains at one time.

This view was made from the Main Street viaduct which leads street railway and vehicle traffic directly over the train sheds.

[end caption]

why didn't you meet us & what one earth is the trouble you might have made your message plainer write at once.

Geo.

Mrs S.B. Buck
Anderson, Mo
Corda Triplett
SB