Board of Pardons and Parole,
Washington, D. C.

Gentlemen:

I understand that Otto Higgins of Kansas City is seeking a parole.

From what I know of the man he is basically sound, and understand that he intends to return to the City and build anew on a firm character basis.

It takes courage to return to one's home and do this and believe a man should get credit for such endeavor.

Believe that anything that can be done to help him return and be a good citizen will be of value to the community as a whole.

Kind regards,
Jerry Zigmond.
Manager.
