Board of Pardon and Paroles
Washington D.C.

Dear Sirs.-

Would like to speak a few words in behalf of Otto P. Higgins who is confined in penitentiary at Leavenworth.

We have known Mr. Higgins and his family for about twenty years. He has two fine girls, both now married and children each. A young son, who passed away just a short time before Mr. Higgins' trial.

2

A courageous and fine woman for a wife, who has kept his business going while he is in Leavenworth.

They have traded with us for the entire twenty years, are still doing so and the wife keeps the bill paid up.

They have lived for twenty years, about two blocks from our store and we have never heard a word of wrong doing concerning Mr. Higgins until he got mixed up in politics.

3.

It is our belief that he deserves leniency and we know that his wife, daughters and grandchildren will help him to regain his honor, and integrity and help him to become an upright man again.

Sincerely
