Hon. James V. Bennett, Director
Bureau of Prisons
Washington
D.C.

Dear Mr. Bennett:

As I understand it, Tom Pendergrast will have served his time in the U.S.P. penitentiary at Leavenworth next month, and our friend, Frank Smith, is very anxious to visit him before he leaves the prison.

We are wondering if there is any chance now for this very deserving man to call upon his old friend.

Respectfully,

A.D. Fairbanks,
U.S. Marshal

Warden Hudspeth:
How do you feel?
