

MEMORANDUM

Holt Coffey
Platte City, Missouri

Subject was formerly sheriff of Platte County, Missouri, having served two terms in this office and one term as jailor. It is known that while engaged as Sheriff, he accepted pay-offs from the operators of the Green Hills Club. According to his own statements, Coffey was splitting the pay-off with R.P.C. Wilson, III, the former County Attorney in Platte County, and is known to have reported part or all of this pay-off on his income tax returns.
