

[page 1]

Sheridan E. Farrell
2446 Elmwood Street
Kansas City, Missouri

Mr. Farrell is manager of the Phillips Hotel, and was formerly a police commissioner in Kansas City. He was appointed by Governor Smith and served for eleven months.

He gives as the reason for his resignation the fact that he was getting bum publicity for the hotel.

Farrell will deny that there were differences between the members of the board as to the policy of the Police Department. Farrell will deny that his desire to change the police chief had anything to do with his desire to have an open town.

Farrell will admit that he wanted an open town to a certain extent.

Farrell will deny:

1. That he ever spoke to Binaggio about placing anyone in the Police Department.
2. That he ever talked to Binaggio about changing the chief of police.
3. That he ever talked to Binaggio about having an open town.

Farrell will testify that Binaggio told him he didn't want any gambling.

Farrell will testify that Binaggio may have recommended him for the police commission job after Farrell first asked the Governor for the job.

Farrell will testify that he was in favor of Braun succeeding Johnson as chief of police, although he did not know a thing about Braun, because "they" said he was a good man. Tuck Milligan was the person who recommended Braun.

[page 2]

Farrell's answers indicate that he might admit that he followed along with whatever Milligan wanted.