

CHECK IN CONTROVERSY AND SPEAKERS AT G.O.P. MEET

—Journal-Post Photos.

Cancelled check (above) drawn on Commerce Trust company for $5,000 made payable to T. J. Pendergast, Democratic leader and signed by officials of the Kelly-Dennis company, contractors for the Turkey Creek sewer.

(Below)—Back of check showing indorsement of T. J. Pendergast and clearing house date of March 21. 1922.

(Left)—Mrs. Harvey W. Harris, 4218 East Fifty-third street terrace, wife of former civil engineer of the Kelly-Dennis company who presented check at a Republican meeting at 5707 Troost avenue last night. Mrs. Harris made sensational charges of graft against the Democratic machine in connection with the Turkey Creek project.

(Right)—W. B. Brown, Republican speaker, who used the charges made by Mrs. Harris as the basis for graft charges against the Democratic machine at several Republican meetings last night.