

THE MISSOURI DEMOCRAT, KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI, FRIDAY, JUNE 13, 1930.
SCENES OF THE GREAT DEMOCRATIC RALLY ON THE STATE FAIR GROUNDS AT SEDALIA, SATURDAY, JUNE 7TH.

This picture shows a few of the scenes and figures snapped at the notable State-wide gathering of Missouri Democrats at Sedalia on the occasion of the annual meeting of the Young Democrats' Jefferson Club of the State.
