

Democrats Should Consider CHARLES M. HOWELL Candidate for United States

HIS QUALIFICATIONS

He has the ability and the fitness to qualify for the office. He has risen to highest recognition as a lawyer, has been successful in his business undertakings, but has never lost the common touch and has a comprehensive understanding of problems of the people.

HIS PLATFORM

Stresses encouragement of agriculture, the basic industry of this country, as a fundamental concern of government; care of war veterans; reduction of taxes through economy in government with elimination of numerous useless boards and bureaus; reduction of the tariff and abandonment of the policy of economic isolation; and a re-application of Democratic principles in conduct of the government in all its phases.

HIS PARTY SERVICE

He is deserving because of the long years of party service. Particularly during the last four years he has given freely of his time and most generously of his means in making the Democratic party of Missouri a fighting organization.

HIS AVAILABILITY

He can be elected if nominated. His candidacy will not involve the party in controversial issues, nor factional division. All Democrats can unite behind him for the fight against Republicans.

He will make a splendid Senator and a fine party leader. As his friends and neighbors, the Democrats of his home ward, who know him best, recommend him to the Democracy of the state and urge your consideration of his candidacy.
