

MARY M'ELROY AIDS HUNT FOR HIDEOUT USED BY KIDNAPERS

City Manager's Daughter Tells Story

Officers Join to Search Area Within 5 Miles of Milburn Club.

VICTIM TO GO ALONG

City Manager's Liberated

Daughter May Be Able to Add Clews.

An intensive search for the hideout in which Miss Mary McElroy, daughter of H. F. McElroy, city manager, was held prisoner following her abduction for $30,000 ransom Saturday morning, is being made in the vicinity of the Milburn Golf club.

Federal, state and city agencies are combining in the hunt for Miss McElroy's captors.

Location of the hideout, which is believed to be within a radius of five miles of the Milburn club, where Miss McElroy was released Sunday afternoon, is the first objective of the searchers. Victim to Help Search.

Miss McElroy Monday afternoon was to be taken to the vicinity of the club by city detectives and was to attempt to retrace part of the route over which she was taken blindfolded just before she was released.