

More than 1,000 persons attended the annual picnic and barbecue given by William T. Kemper, chairman of board of the Commerce Trust company, at his Red Fox farm, One Hundred and Fifty-second and Holmes streets, Saturday afternoon. Pictured here are, 1—Mr. Kemper as he took time out for a few moments to cool off with a bottle of pop, 2—Billy Purdy, 5 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs, Jess W. Purdy, 4333 Tracy avenue, chosen the “handsomest boy,” chats with William T. Kemper, jr., outfitted in cowpuncher regalia. 3—Miss Helen Finch of the Commerce Trust company, judged the winner of the bathing beauty contest. 4—Diana Sheffield, 3, daughter of Mr, and Mrs. Virgil Sheffield. 1134 Prospect avenue, winner of the beauty contest “for ladies between 2 and 5,” shown with Patrolman Jimmy Lawrence.