

THE THIRTEEN JURORS WHO WILL HEAR THE VOTE FRAUD TRIAL.

These thirteen men, all living outside of Jackson County, were chosen yesterday to hear the election fraud evidence against defendants in the trial being held before Judge Merrill E. Otis in federal court. First row, left to right, Clifford G. Scruggs, Jefferson City, lumberman; Philip Rentchler, Clinton, grocer; J. T. Turpin, Crocker, employee of the federal resettlement administration; Ira C. McDonnell, Columbia, merchant; W. K. Holland, Steedman, farmer, and Homer Hampy, Smithton, farmer. Back row, left to right, Jeff Poff, Gentry, retired merchant; Frank Petree, Buffalo, farmer; C. A. Morrow, Osceola, retired produce dealer; Leo Hackney, Lemons, farmer; R. H. Franks, Thomasville, farmer, and L. C. Dobyms, Corning, farmer. The thirteenth juror, J. W. Van Olinder, Polo, is standing at the extreme left of the picture near the jury box.