Sir: In Re: Bluford vs. Canada
No. 42-Civil

Replying to your letter of January 18, 1941. I have the honor to advise you that the Plaintiff in the captioned matter filed in this Court on December 5, 1940, Notice of Appeal and Appeal Bond in the amount of $250.00. Copies of said Notice were forwarded to counsel for Defendant.

On December 5, 1940, counsel for Plaintiff were advised of the necessity for complying with paragraph (b). Rule 73, but to date the files of the office do not disclose the filing of a praecipe or an order for the transcript of the record.

I have asked Mrs. Elinor Kavanaugh, who reported the trial whether or not she has received an order for a transcript and she advises that she did not, although counsel for plaintiff made inquiry some time ago concerning the cost of same.

Very truly yours,
