In Re: State ex rel. Bluford v. Canada (Mandamus Suit).

Dr. Frederick A. Middlebush,
President, University of Missouri,
Columbia, Missouri.

Dear Doctor:

I know that I speak for all counsel on our side of this case when I say that we sincerely appreciate the splendid help and cooperation given us by Messrs. Overstreet, Martin, Canada and Cowan, in the recent trial of this case. Mr. Overstreet was tireless and most helpful in supplying us quickly with authorities on law points suddenly arising during the trial. Dean Martin's assistance was invaluable. He exhibited a comprehensive approach to our problem and a sympathetic attitude throughout; and his manner of handling himself on the witness stand was superlative. We had fine cooperation from Messrs. Canada and Cowan in preparing essential record data.

The case is submitted to the circuit court, and we expect a decision very shortly.

Yours respectfully,
Wm. S. Hogsett
