ORDER

The above-named defendants have dismissed their respective appeals taken to, and pending before, the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Eighth Judicial Circuit so that the sentences originally imposed upon the respective Judgments of conviction might be set aside and new sentences imposed by this court. The mandates of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Eighth Judicial Circuit remanding their several cases have now been received and filed by the clerk of this court.

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED AS FOLLOWS:

(1) That the sentences now standing against said defendants, and each of them, be and they hereby are set aside, but solely for the purpose of resentencing said defendants and each of them.

(2) That the modified sentences to be imposed on said defendants, and each of them, be entered and imposed upon the condition that the fines imposed in said modified sentences be paid to the clerk of this court on July 15, 1938, and jurisdiction is reserved to set aside said modified sentences and to impose other sentences in the event said fines be not so paid.

Kansas City, Missouri July 18, 1938

Merrill E. Otis, United States District Judge.
