Gov. Lloyd Stark:

Dear Sir

I wish to congratulate you on your recent primary victory over Pendergast Bossism, it sure brought courage to a lot of honest voters, but there is no secrecy in the ballot here, when we voted at the last primary the official unfolded my wife's ballot in the presence of both of us. I have been in the contracting business and have handled a lot of men and I have attended a Mechanical & Elec. School, Some time ago I was forced to accept a W.P.A. job as laborer under Pendergast dominated foremen that have had no experience who have bought there jobs and pay tribute to hold there job, there is plenty of coercion here, but I will say no more at present but wish you plent of good will. Sincerely yours

Mr. Earl Sinclair
