Dear Major Stark:

The writer looks back with pleasure having met you in Mr. Pendergast's office about October 12th:

Wish to congratulate you on the nice showing you are already making and to offer my services in any way possible in this County and elsewhere that I can be of assistance.

I hope to have the pleasure of seeing you in the near future and talking matters over with the view of being of benefit to you in your oncoming campaign.

Wishing you every success, I am
