My dear Mrs. Stark:

The replies to my personal letters on "Stark for Governor" have been interesting. One from Kansas City said he went to the captain of his precinct and he laughed and said Stark didn't need any help he was already in. Of course my reply was an earnest appeal for him to enlist his own personal friends and the people who were opposed to Pendergast.

letters might do good for she was "in a position to know there would be a big fight against him" on account of Pendergast and his endorsement.

defeat Champ Clark for Congress once.

I am not going to burden you with letters but these questions had been asked me. Also will the joining of the Club necessitate voting the entire democratic ticket? I am so eager to do what I can. Sincerely yours,
