Jefferson City, Mo.,

Nov 5, 35

Dear Major:- This note is completely off the record. I have just returned from the picture show. It was a picture of the entire procedure of Annapolis, and Annapolis School life. Of course, I thought of and associated your life there in it's every phase. Naturally, this note was inspired from same –

I received the word you sent me from Moberly by Mr. Watson of my personnel. I shall avail myself of the opportunity later. Just now I am head-over-heels at it – I want to do all I can for my friend Murray. I believe I am accomplishing the task-

I think you are doing exactly right: getting away from the pictures for a spell – you will need all the energy you can muster next year when the campaign gets underway.

I knew where you stood most of the time, but I was not going to mislead you. Knew Tom Pendergast was awaiting my return before he made a decision. That trip I was on was not only W.P.A., but I did not want to 'say' anything in St. Louis. I knew though, you realized what it was all about.

Rest, rest, and rest some more – It will be strenuous and hard work after the first of the year – Especially so – when Roosevelt is nominated – His end won't be such a cinch.

Again a good friend and a very happy fellow to know my faith (or share) in you came to the happy conclusion I anticipated. In the words of the immortal Schley "The Victory is big enough for all" – myself and those other fellows who plugged. Yet, I believe the long and sincere talk on four hours before I called you, had it's might. At least every prophecy, or word I passed you have sincere truth. And I know you are not going to stop at Jefferson City. I feel and see a great future before you.

I simply only want to be remembered as a true and good friend – I anticipate nothing, want nothing – only just to be a "shipmate" in your heart's category, as some of your friends- I am satisfied with the side line, but

I do want you to always feel when you are surrounded in this campaign of "fairweather friends," and you really anticipate and welcome a bin of advice – showed that moment ever present itself – it, if I can assist you, will be happily and sincerely again.

I am not the smar[t]est fellow on Earth, nor do I classify myself a damn fool; Especially in this political game--

Again, just the scenes of Annapolis and it's life, which was your life, with great honor, has inspired this note –

Your friend,
Jim Huron
