Major Lloyd Stark
Louisiana, Missouri

Dear Lloyd:

I was certainly glad to hear your voice over the telephone yesterday, and I am very much interested in the success of your campaign. And by success, I mean the size of the majority in both the primary and the general elections.

I want to see you nominated and elected by such an overwhelming majority, that it will make Missouri democratic for the next twenty years.

I believe that Bob Holloway and Colonel Bouchard are qualified to manage your campaign. I think it would be a good plan to discuss the whole situation with Jim Aylward and Jim Pendergast, and abide by the conclusion that the three of you come to.

I shall be glad to help in any way I possibly can. If you are going to use any loud speakers, there is a young fellow by the name of George Urso at Jefferson City, who is a genius in handling these machines. He set up a speaking outfit on an old car for me, that had the best carrying qualities of any in the campaign. He really knows his business.

If there is anything else I can do to help in the matter in any way whatever, all you need to do is to indicate it.

Sincerely yours,

Harry
