

November 18-1933.

Mrs. Ruby Henshaw,
The Northwestern Mutual Life Ins., Co.,
13th floor Fairfax Building,
Kansas City, Missouri.

My dear Ruby:

Thank you so much for your letter and for all the catalogs, letters, circulars, etc., you have sent in. You have been very kind in thinking about this.

Also, I want to thank you for your good Republican vote. It is just too bad that all of the Republicans are not nice people and that all of the Democrats are not nice people, but it just seems we have some of both in each party.

Regarding the Star photograph. It just so happened that your friend, Pendergast, was at Senator Wilson's funeral and as Senator Wilson was one of my closest friends and a life-long friend of Judge Eugene Stark, I, naturally, went to his funeral. While there I met and talked to Mr. Pendergast for about two minutes as did most every man at the funeral.

I hope you are finding everything satisfactory and booming in your business. We are hoping for better things down here now that we have a change that so many people seem to want, especially the farmers.

Be sure to come in and see me whenever you are down this way.

Sincerely,

LCS D
