Mr. Jack Stapleton
The Stanberry Headlight
Stanberry, Missouri

Dear Jack:

I certainly appreciate your good letter of the Twenty Eighth, in reply to my letter about

Ashley O. Meyer.

I thought I had him catalogued correctly, when I received the endorsement from Dr. Ross, hence my letter to you.

I think very highly of Lloyd Stark and I do not think there is a finer man in Missouri, I cannot of course, speak for the organization in Kansas City, but I know he is very well thought of.

I do not think a decision will be made until Mr. Pendergast gets back from Europe.

I always manage to read the Stanberry Headlight and I have been intending to write you about it but there are hundreds of letters on my desk and I just have not gotten around to it. I cannot thank you enough for the nice things you say about me.

Sincerely,

Harry S. Truman

[P.S. Thank Peck for all his trouble. I appreciate it very much.]
