My dear Doctor [MS. illegible]

Since meeting you in Mexico, Missouri, in front of the Horsey Hotel I returned to St. Louis, my home, and I have spoken to a good many friends who can do you and Major Stark a lot of good, and among them is Brother John P. Shellbey of University City, who is in the Investment Business in St. Louis, and not because I say it, but he is one of the best known and most popular men in St. Louis. He has never been in Politics, but he was urged by Can Corran and many others in St. Louis to make the race for Congress in 1934, but he delined. Your will hear from him soon.

Another man is [MS. illegible] Sanders of Poplar Bluff, who is in the Missouri Insurance Department out of Jefferson City. He is going to call a meeting and invite you and the next Governor down to South East Mo., and if he does, be sure and go. He knows everyone in that section.

The next time you are in Jefferson City please look up Francis E. Murphy, Chief Clerk, Mo. Ins. Department. He is out of Kansas City and a friend of Pendergast, a real fellow. I am not looking for anything but can do you a lot of good.

Regards

Eugene C. Sweeney
