Hon. Sam O. Hargus,
Secretary to the Governor,
Jefferson City, Mo.

My Dear Friend Sam:

I received your letter of June 15th. Thanks for the suggestion.

I thought I informed you that my friend, T. J. Pendergast wrote Gov. Park in my behalf. He said he would be most pleased if the Governor will place me, and he will back me for any position, other than such positions he had previously made endorsements. He so wrote Governor Park while I was in his office, and the letter was mailed. As I left his office, Mr. Pendergast said: "Mac, I will do more than write the letter, I will have my nephew, James Pendergast, speak to the Governor in your behalf."

Knowing Mr. Pendergast as I do, and as you know him, as well, I never knew him to go back on his word with a friend. For more than 25-years I stood for the organization candidates out state, in my county and district, and any where in the state that I could render a service. You know that as well as I do. In all these years I never had occasion to need an endorsement, as I never asked for any of the honors.

I wrote the Governor today, asking him if he would look over my papers, etc. I want to thank you again, for your kindnesses. I am sure a word from you will suffice.

Sincerely your friend,
U. A. McBride
