

[page 1]

T. J. FALVEY, President

Massachusetts BONDING and INSURANCE COMPANY
HOME OFFICE. BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS
FIDELITY AND SURETY BONDS AND CASUALTY INSURANCE

C. W. GREENWADE, GENERAL AGENT
813 WOODRUFF BUILDING
TELEPHONE: 871

SPRINGFIELD. MISSOURI Mar. 11th. 1934

Hon. E. Y. Mitchell
Asst. Secy. of Commerce
Dear E.Y.;

Ed. Freeman took a copy of the letter that Sen. Clark wrote to R.T. Wood and also a copy of the reply of Mr. Wood to the Senator, over to John McCormick who as you no doubt know is a personal friend of the Senator and who really managed his campaign in this section of the State. After reading them McCormick went over to Ed's office and told him that he had written the Senator telling him that the fight had went far enough and asking him to get behind me for the post office. He also told Ed that the Senator was endangering Milligan's chances in the primary this fall and I think he so advised the Senator but I am not sure.

Mr. McCormick and S.C. Bates have been the strongest supporters of Farmer Brown and I believe that the Senator will pay attention to him. Mr. McCormick sent the be copies of the two letters to Dan Nee at Kansas City and asked him to advise Clark to get in line for me.

Chinn, Dickey, and Wear have been very busy all this week trying to make trouble for both you and me over the attack you made on Pendergast they have sent numerous letters and telegrams to Washington but I have been unable to find out who they were were to. You no doubt saw the article in the Kansas City Star which was supposed to be a dispatch from Washington to the effect that your attack on the Kansas City boss would probably cost me the Post Office and that article seems to be stirred them into activity again.

[page 2]

I sent Ton Greenwade to Washinton yesterday to work out on Clark as I know that he stands very high with him and I explained to him that my defeat for the Postmastership would be a serious blow to his political future (Tom's) and of course he has political aspirations and I beleive he can help me.

Yours truly

C. W. Greenwade