

-Journal-Post Photo.

HASTEN TO PENDERGAST'S BEDSIDE—When it was learned here Tuesday that T. J. Pendergast, Democratic political leader, would undergo an operation in New York, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Pendergast, jr., (left), and the Democratic leader's nephew, James M. Pendergast, departed for New York in an airplane. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Pendergast, jr., left the plane at Chicago after Mrs. Pendergast became ill. They continued the trip by rail. James Pendergast flew on. The elder Pendergast was reported in New York Wednesday to be resting comfortably. The operation was performed Tuesday afternoon.

July 1936