Colonel Bennett Clark,

St. Louis, Missouri.

Dear Bennett:

Replying to yours of December 20th, I referred the matter to Tom Pendergast. He was just leaving town, and I have not heard from him. I think he will not be back until early in January.

I agree with you that it may be important to have the right man elected

House. Of course, Jones would be highly satisfactory to me. Writing in haste.

Cordially yours,
