

February 20, 1931.

James M. Pendergast, Esq.,
Attorney at Law,
Commerce Bldg.,
City.

Dear Pendergast:

I am writing you, instead of bothering Tom. Am enclosing a letter from Mrs. Emma Riley.

I did know the father of the boy who wants a place. He was very prominent in the Railway Clerks' service. Possibly you can do something for this young man. If so, I shall be glad, indeed.

Cordially yours,

S