

July 20, 1932.

Honorable T. J. Pendergast,
City.

Dear Tom:

You will remember I spoke to you once or twice in the interest of Judge C. C. Dickinson, who notwithstanding the vicissitudes of politics, has always been a good friend of mine. He is an able man.

The letter which he is sending out, copy of which he sent to me, and which I enclose herewith, shows his position on the Eighteenth Amendment. I think you can trust him to go along and get rid of this prohibition nuisance.

I am writing you, because I have not had the good fortune to see you. Will call you soon and we will get together as soon as we have a little time.

Sincerely yours,
