

From Harry S. Truman to Bess W. Truman, October 25, 1939

[page 1]

[Senate Chamber] Washington, D.C.

Oct. 25, 1939

Dear Bess:- When I went over to the hotel last night your good Sunday Special was there. It almost made up for my not getting a letter this morning. Suppose it will take a day or two to get straightened out again after the Saturday and Sunday break. We are slowly and gradually approaching the end. It will come tomorrow or next day I'm sure.

[page 2]

Mr. Clark and I have had a time trying to get to the W.P.A. office to recommend a man for Murray's place. It looks as if they would really put poor old Murray in the jug. There doesn't seem to be anything I can do about it either. That income tax outfit are worse than the OGPW or the GESTEPO [sic] either. Some day I hope I can help to put some of them where they belong. Just made a record for the Moral Rearmament broadcast for Sunday. It goes on at from 5 to 6 P.M. eastern time. It was a fine record and sounded better than I did so I guess it'll go over all right.

[page 3]

Hope I get a letter tomorrow. Kiss my baby. Love to you Harry.