Hotel New Yorker, New York City

Sunday July 28 '35

Dear Bess:

Well I left Washington at noon yesterday and drove up here by seven thirty which wasn't so bad considering the traffic. I let the boy at Ft. Meade drive me so I had help in case of car or tire trouble and if the hotel treats me as it did before it won't cost anything but meals and that is a rather cheap cost for a driver.

I am going to see T.J. this morning and start back to Washington at noon.

Hope I find a letter there when I get back and I believe I will. I'll probably get all extravagant and call again. Charlie Howell was in to see me and I wanted to get to the boss first so that's why I'm here. He and Mrs. Howell are going to Europe and I am sure he wanted to announce for governor when he gets back. That'll split Clark and T.J. sure I believe. I'm going to prevent the split if I can. Love to both of you. Kiss Margey. Harry.
