Dear Mr. Friant:

I understand that Mr. H. M. Long, of Newberg, Missouri, has filed an application for a position with the Rural Resettlement Administration.

Mr. Long is extremely well qualified for the position for which he is applying, and I am sure he could fill it with satisfaction.

Your kind cooperation in his behalf will be greatly appreciated by me.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Harry;

I am informed that Ralph C. Bowman is the present Superintendent of the Transient Camp at Sugar Lake, Missouri.

He is a fine young fellow from Nevada, and if it is possible to keep him on after the Camps are taken over by the WPA, I will appreciate it.

Sincerely yours,

Harry S. Truman

P. S. I understand that Dewey A. Routh wants to be transferred from Sedalia back to Vernin County. I don't know whether this can be done or not, but I will appreciate it if you will look into it.
