COMMITTEE ON INTERSTATE COMMERCE

Washington, D. C. December 10, 1937

Mr. William A. Kitchen 728 Delaware Street Kansas City, Missouri

Dear Bill:

Appreciate most highly your letter of the Seventh, with your suggestion.

I have been thinking the situation over very carefully and have not as yet made up my mind as to what the proper procedure will be.

I think your suggestion however is a good one and it will receive a lot of consideration.

Sincerely,

HST:MLD

Harry S. Truman
