COMMITTEE ON INTERSTATE COMMERCE

Washington, D. C. May 10, 1938

Mr. William A. Kitchen 728 Delaware Street Kansas City, Missouri

Dear Bill:

I talked with Joe Keenan over the telephone and he told me that he would be glad to accept; that he thought the Bar Association in Kansas City needed to be told a few things, anyway. I told him to go to it and give them both barrels.

It won't be possible for me to be there, much to my regret.

If you can say a good word to Keenan about Fred Canfil it won't hurt anything, and you might have any other of our political friends who feel the same way do the same thing.

Sincerely yours,

Harry S. Truman
