COMMITTEE ON INTERSTATE COMMERCE

Washington, D. C. May 19, 1938

Mr. William A. Kitchen 728 Delaware Street Kansas City, Missouri

Dear Bill:

I certainly did appreciate your good letter of the Sixteenth, and it seems to me that you handled the situation very diplomatically.

Keenan seemed to be in a highly satisfactory frame of mind when he arrived back in Washington, and I even went so far as to put his speech in the record for yesterday.

I believe that the matter in which we are interested is going to work out to a successful conclusion.

Harry S.
