

Aug, 14, 1922.

Mr. George H. Combs, Jr.,

Kansas City, Mo.,

Dear Sir:

Thank you very much for your congratulations. I am indebted to you for a great part of that victory, and I can never thank you enough for the help you gave me. Your eloquence overcame thier money and the road oil they used to get votes. I didn't make a promise of a road or a job for votes. The victory is due to you and the rest of my friends who worked so unselfishly to nominate me.

Thanking you again most heartily, I am,

Yours very truly,

Harry S. Truman.