

Aug. 14, 1922.

Mr. J. W. Corn,
Oak Grove, Mo.

My Dear Mr. Corn:

Thank you very much for your letter of congratulation. It is a pleasure to meet a man who makes an honest fight in the primary and then gets behind the nominee. Our fight was all our own and Mr. Parrent made a good one and a clean one, and I bear no grudges against his friends. I am glad of your support and I am sure that we will make our common enemy, the Republicans, a good fight this fall and go to a glorious victory together.

Again thanking you for your good wishes and wishing you every success, I am,
Yours very truly,
Harry S. Truman.