KANSAS CITY, MO., Aug. 14, 1922.

Mrs. Orin K. Fry,

1200 West Walnut St.,

Independence, Mo.

My Dear Mrs. Fry:

I want to thank you for the good work you did for me in the late primary election. It is to you and the rest of my loyal friends that I owe the nomination. We had no money and I promised neither roads nor jobs for votes. It is a pleasure to have the nomination for this important office when it can be had so that something can be accomplished.

My only ambition is to make a record that my good friends will be proud of.

Again thanking you most heartily, I am,

Respectfully,

Harry S. Truman.
