

April 6th,
Personal

Honorable Harry S. Truman,
Senate Office Building,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Senator:

I am very sorry to have to tell you that they let my son-in-law, John Lillis, out of the F.H.A, and I don't know who they picked to let them go, whether it was Kemper's man there Trimble, or not. As you know both Aylward and Jimmie Pendergast were the ones who recommended him to you, and as he was the only relative that I had in any political job, I felt kind of bad to see him let off.

I realize it is awfully hard for you to place everybody, and if I had any intimation there was going to be any changes there I could have written Farley a little note, and am sure he would have given it some consideration because he has had me do things for him here.

Didn't see Shannon while he was here, although he was down with T.J. and everything is going along nicely.

Mr. Pendergast leaves here the 18th expects to be back about June 2nd. You no doubt will see him on his way East.

We have had just a little bit of cold weather but with Easter coming on now, am sure we will have a change for the better.

Trusting you are very well, and with kind personal regards from the boys and myself, I am
Very sincerely yours,
